WILDFLOWERS

WHERE TWO MILLIONAIRES' SONS DIED

Here's all that remained of an airplane carrying three young millionaires, which went into a tail spin in a fog near Del Monte, Cal., and fell to kill Kenneth G. McIntosh, son of a San Francisco banker, and Clarence H. Cooke Jr., son of the president of the Bank of Hawaii and part owner of a large Honolulu firm. Frank Fuller, connected with a large paint concern, who piloted the plane, was the only one to escape. He declared he signaled the others to use their parachutes and leap, but they failed to do so.

Delightful and Inexpensive Outing to

SUSPENSION BRIDGE and FIRST CAPILANO CANYON

The Swinging Bridge over Capilano Canyon
North Vancouver, B. C.

A magnificent view of the World-famous First Capilano Canyon may be obtained from the Suspension Bridge, which crosses the Canyon at this point. (Note the only Suspension Bridge in the world with span of 450 feet)

Length of bridge 450 ft

The WOODS

On the west side of the Canyon are most [illegible] and [illegible] for their tall timber. Delightful trails lead into the Canyon and to the salmon-haunted pools.

They make splendid picnic grounds. A good water supply always proves attractive to the merry parties who come here to spend the day, occasionally being joined by some shy stray bear cub.

The unsurpassed beauty of the vista up and down the Canyon is proving a constant [illegible] to tourists from all over the world.

The TEA HOUSE

The exquisitely cedar built Tea House, the picturesque Pergola and quaint Gate House make it possible to obtain rest and refreshment among perfect surroundings. A delightful hill garden (being, by the way, the only hill garden in the canyon) gives it peculiar charm. It has justly been declared the most beautiful Teahouse on the Pacific Coast.

The view from the verandah, up and down the Canyon, of the mountains and woods is unsurpassed in loveliness. Refreshments, always the best of their kind, are served in the daintiest possible manner at popular city prices.

FARMERS' MARKET

To hold down employees' cost of living Swan Island opened a Farmers' Market which is already a huge success. On the first day four trucks set up shop in the Mocks Bottom parking area near the yard entrance and, as the day shift came off work, fresh vegetables were sold rapidly. In slightly over half an hour the trucks were empty and headed back to town. The new marketing venture is expected to be a permanent feature of the yard.

—STAR-BULLETIN PHOTO

Flashing swords as well as rice featured the military wedding at St. Clement's yesterday. In front are Capt. and Mrs. Flinn, the bride and bridegroom. Directly behind them are Miss Louise Parshall, maid of honor, and Lieut. Oscar Rand, best man. The officers are Major John Kilpatrick, Capt. Lorenzo Cooke, Capt. Herbert Baldwin, Capt. E. A. Guillemet, Lieut. A. E. McConnel, Lieut. Joseph Hafer, Lieut. John Madison and Lieut. J. A. Stansell.

Hostess at Officers' Club

Mrs. Joseph B. Hafer, wife of Lieutenant Hafer, will be one of the hostesses at the forthcoming meeting of the Fort Scott Bridge Club.

SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1923.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

The engagement of Eleanor Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Carlson, of this city to Lieutenant Joseph B. Hafer of Fort Stevens, is announced. Miss Carlson, whose affable and unassuming charm of manner endeared her to all her friends, attended school for girls in Portland, and her engagement will be of interest to her host of friends in this city. Lieutenant Hafer is a graduate of Stanford University and is a member of the Delta Chi fraternity. The marriage is expected to take place in the early fall, after which the young couple intend to go East, via the Panama Canal.

Leaving for Siberia.

A. G. Carlson, [illegible] Pacific [illegible] will leave Sunday for Siberia [illegible] on the auxiliary schooner [illegible]. He has accepted a position with a Siberia Fish and Cold Storage [illegible] ny to go to Kamchatka and will [illegible] approximately 1,000 [illegible] on [illegible] mon.
